

G-TEM

Post title	Trainee ERP Systems Developer
Division	Logistics
Reporting to	ERP Manager

Post Definition/Purpose

The role will be part of the ERP development team who provide day-to-day support to our QAD MFG/pro system, carry out improvements, system enhancements, etc.

You will establish strong relationships within the organization to support the QAD MFG/pro user community and QAD project development. You will be required to develop both business functionality and technical skills across a variety of areas in support of system improvement, through problem solving to system enhancement.

Key Responsibilities

- Delivery high quality software that meets or exceed requirements and timescale commitments.
- Support system incident resolution activities as required.
- Collaborate with stakeholders to ensure the appropriate solution is delivered.
- Create and maintain technical documentation relating to the project under development.
- Conduct peer review of code and testing.

Skills & Abilities

- Strong knowledge of RDMS concepts.
- Knowledge of the Software Development life cycle (SDLC).
- Knowledge of Basic Linux Operating system commands.
- Knowledge of MS Windows and MS Office suite of products.

Qualifications

- A relevant IT / Computer Science qualification
- HNC/HND or Degree level

Package

- 25 days holiday (mostly fixed with plant shut downs) + 8 Bank holidays
- Competitive salary
- 37.5 hour week working Monday to Friday. 8.00am-4.30pm (Monday-Thursday) 8.00am-3.30pm (Friday)
- Work wear provided
- Free parking

Required to support the following plants

G-TEM Gloucester Plant 1 & Plant

G-TEM Ebbw Vale Plant 2

G-TEM Tredegar Plant 3

G-TEM

Remote support to G-TES Slovakia Plant